Visiting: Indianapolis, Nashville, Knoxville, Chattanooga

Day 1: Chicago—Knoxville

Today we will set out at 8:00am from Chicago Chinatown. At noon, we will visit the Indiana State House, the Indiana state Museum and the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Hall of Fame Museum where collects almost all kinds of race cars from 1909. Tonight, guests will stay in the hotel at Tennessee.

Hotel: Clarion Inn Knoxville or equivalent

Day 2: Knoxville—Great Smoky Mountains National Park

Leave for Tennessee, drive through the Great Smoky Mountains which is the habitat of a variety of animals. There are approximately 1500 bear species and you will have great chance to get close to the real nature. Then we will reach Gatlinburg, a charming mountain town with a variety of unique shops, restaurants and boutique hotels. Among them, some local stores will surely keep you busy where you can pick out souvenirs or local products such as Ole Smoky Moonshine and hand-made candies. Our Tennessee visit reaches the climax of the day by attending the most visited dinner attraction in America (at your own expense): Dixie Stampede, dine in a dinner theatre where you can watch a brilliant show with 32 horses and a cast of top-notch riders. They will thrill you with daring feats of trick riding and competition, pitting North against South in a friendly and fun rivalry. You will enjoy music, dancing, special effects and family friendly comedy along the way. With such a visual spectacular and taste buds satisfaction, the experience composed is second to none.

Hotel: Clarion Inn or equivalent

Day 3: Chattanooga—Nashville

After breakfast, we will arrive at Chattanooga by noon and explore the magnificent Lookout Mountain and Ruby Falls which is a 145-foot high underground waterfall located within Lookout Mountain. Rock City will be our next destination. It is said that it is possible to see seven states from Lover's Leap, a point in Rock City. Want to know whether that is true? You can join us and find out. At last, we'll take the Lookout Mountain Incline Railway. Also known as "America's Most Amazing Mile," The Incline's trolley-style cars climb through the natural beauty surrounding historic Lookout Mountain at a breathtaking 72.7% grade – straight up!

Hotel: Baymont Inn & Suites Tullahoma or equivalent

Day 4 Nashville – Chicago

Nashville is the capital of Tennessee. The visit to the government building of the state of Tennessee and the Volunteers Square will offer you a brief look of the history of the state of Tennessee. By noon, we will reach to the Mammoth Cave National Park. (If time is permitted, the tour leader will arrange an in-depth tour inside the park.) Mammoth Cave National Park preserves the cave system and a part of the Green River valley and hilly country of south central Kentucky. This is the world's longest known cave system, with more than 400 miles explored. Early guide Stephen Bishop called the cave a "grand, gloomy and peculiar place," but its vast chambers and complex labyrinths have earned its name. At nightfall we will arrive at Chicago Chinatown.
